

A selection of stories from
AUTUMN 2017

OUR HOMES | OUR NEWS

Mowlam Healthcare

Resident Kevin Moloney & his wife Marian
The Park Nursing Home

Everyone Loves A Good Wedding

The thoughtful team at Caherass Nursing Home, hosted a wedding for the enrichment of our residents' lives - a special day to get excited about, get dressed-up for, have the make-up done, dance, sing, mingle with family... absolute joy.

Learning The Art Of Selfies

Residents of Swords Nursing Home had a right giggle playing with photo filters to create the ultimate selfies, with activities coordinator Sylwia.

Annual Outing To Kilkee

Kilrush Nursing Home's outing to Kilkee was another special sunny day for residents and their accompanying care team. They love their roadtrips.

Fang-tastic Feast

Residents and staff of Cloverlodge went all-out for their Halloween Party this year - wow! Between skeleton guests, creepy treats, and scary make-up it really was a party to remember for residents and their families.

Home-From-Home Joy

SUCH a gorgeous photo shared by The Park Nursing Home of resident Nuala O'Brien enjoying an impromptu dance with carer Darren.

Making Memories

Residents of Cloverlodge Nursing Home enjoyed the most colourful visit to the magnificent Arboretum Home & Garden Heaven and Rachel's Garden Café. Such a beautiful place to hang out.

Centenarian Celebrations

Truly special photos of resident Dympna who celebrated her 100th birthday surrounded by the love of her family, friends, fellow residents, and staff of Kilmainhamwood Nursing Home.

So Precious

Resident Frank McAuliffe playing fetch with Ted - fun and exercise in the lovely Autumn weather at Santa Maria Nursing Home.

Bowling For Positive Ageing Week

Active engagement for residents of Adare & District Memory Care Centre. Our intrepid team hit the bowling alley and had a blast for Positive Ageing Week. Very cool.

Cissy - Living With Purpose

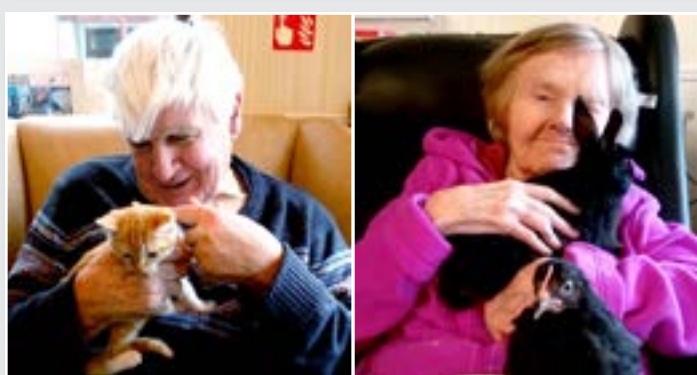

Resident Cissy with care assistant Lisa from Ennis Nursing Home. Cissy gives a baking demonstration every Wednesday for her fellow residents. They request what they would like baked and enjoy it for their tea later in the evening.

We Dared To Care

Congrats to the entire Kilcolgan Nursing Home team who came to work dressed in wedding gowns and evening wear, to raise much needed funds for the Irish Cancer Society. Residents were absolutely thrilled with all the glamour and fuss on the day.

Our Furry Friends

Such precious photos shared by the care team in Lakes Nursing Home. The pet therapy session was a wonderful and uplifting hands-on experience for residents. So endearing!

Remembering Our Loved Ones

Resident Josephine Madden places her memory leaf on the Remembrance Tree in The Park Nursing Home - remembering residents who have sadly passed during the year.

Keeping Active in The Fresh Air

Such happy pictures from Rush Nursing Home. Residents planting-out the raised beds for some winter colour in their home-from-home.

Person-Centred

Even when a resident prefers to have a duvet day, birthdays are still celebrated by the wonderful care team in Kilmainhamwood - Happy 95th Birthday dearest Bridget.

Halloween Monster Mash

What a vibrant and happy week is has been for residents and staff of Castle Gardens Nursing Home. Costume party fun and mischief.

Woolly Ward's Farm Visitors

Woolly Ward's Farm and their cast of friendlies dropped by to meet and greet the residents of Swords Nursing Home. Residents loved petting and grooming the small furries.

Handmade With Love & Care

The very wonderful Nellie (left) and her fellow residents of St Martha's Nursing Home handknit this beautiful scarf for Chef Breda.

Festive Preparations

Residents are getting organised for Christmas and making cards for a Fairtrade Ireland competition at Roseville House Nursing Home.

Living Life To The Fullest

Residents Elizabeth, Victor, Sarah, Vincent, and Mairead of Archersrath Nursing Home had the best afternoon in their local bowling alley, with carers Michaela and Jemma.

Mercy Sisters Celebrate With Sr Sheila

Resident Sr Sheila Costello (centre) with her friends from the Mercy Convent, celebrating her 86th birthday in Sligo Nursing Home. Beautiful photo!

Puppy Love

The joyful benefits of pet therapy for residents of Millrace Nursing Home. What a cutie 'Ollie' is! Such a cuddly companion for the residents.

Halloween Joy

A snapshot of the joyful Halloween entertainment in Ballincollig Community Nursing Unit.

The Smiles Speak For Themselves

Moycullen Nursing Home residents and staff were absolutely overjoyed when members of the heroic Galway Team paid them a visit with the treasured Liam MacCarthy Cup. Hip Hip Hurray!

Age Action Week In Fota

Residents of St Martha's Nursing Home walked amongst animals from all five continents at Fota Wildlife Park and had the most enjoyable excursion to celebrate Positive Ageing Week.

NHI Care Awards

Congratulations to Maeve Poff of Killarney Nursing Home, a finalist for Nurse of The Year at the NHI Care Awards. The entire Mowlam team are so very proud of Maeve's success.

Clearbrook's First Halloween Party

Staff and residents really got into the spooky spirit for Halloween at Clearbrook Nursing Home. Spooktacular fun - well done team.

Destination Muckross

Smiles all round as the residents from Killarney Nursing Home, enjoy a wonderful outing to Muckross House.